

It's Mothers' Day today in Canada and the US, and since morning I & my kids have been dancing the classic by Cameroonian-born Prince Nico Mbarga, 'Sweet Mother'...

The dance is to honour the Lord, to celebrate my darling wife - my children's mother - Chinyere (God's Gift) Ezinwanyi (Virtuous woman) Ukwunyeraku (Harbinger of wealth); and to honour my wonderful mom, Anna Chinuru'heakara (God heard what we said), and to my dear mom-in-law, Selina Ukachi (God's counsel)...

And to my sisters, sisters-in-law, friends, church members, colleagues.....and all mothers and mothers-to-be:

We honour you today!

I hugged my wife; I called my mom far away in Nigeria; and my mom-in-law far away in UK, and my sister & sisters-in-law close by in the US.....and said, your are sweet mothers: God bless you!

And I called Sisters BlessIj, Vera, Franca, Adesua, Chino, Helen, Princess, Helen, Uzo, Lynn, Tina, Tammy.....and invited those of them in Calgary to Mothers' Day Celebration @ Kingdom Life Ministries (KLM) today, where "Mother Chiny" will be ministering the Word, and the children and fathers will be ministering in music & dance...and later take them to a Mothers' Day Buffet Dinner @ Treasures of China.....

And I called the beloved sister @ the Tom Baker Cancer Centre also...and wished her Happy Mothers' Day, even on her hospital bed.

My wife and I visited & prayed with her on Friday, trusting that the balm in Gilead, and the Great Physician, would heal her.....

As at when I spoke to her this morning, the physical healing hadn't manifested as we and many others, including "high-ranking" men and women of God, desire and have prayed for several years. And the question remains: is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no Physician there?

I know you were expecting an answer in this part II – I mean, what I might receive as the answer. I, too! And I thought I did, but when the Lord asked me, as it were, what (answer) do you see? I wasn't quite sure anymore...I was like the blind man Jesus healed by spitting on his eyes: as the man did initially, the answer I saw was like seeing "men as trees, walking". Jesus "put His hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly". I need to get those Hands upon my eyes; plus perhaps some eye salve, to 'see clearly' God's answer to the question: Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no Physician there? Why then are the wounds of God's people not healed?

I didn't want to rehash some of the things we know: sin, little or no faith, the fact that we live in a broken world...etc. Those are valid, but as I sought the Lord, it seemed to me He was beckoning me to see something fresh, to see "correctly", as Jeremiah saw the branch of an almond tree correctly, when the Lord asked him early in his ministry, 'what do you see?'

I perceived I need to read all of Jeremiah from chapter 8 to the end, to know what the Lord answered Jeremiah, in similar circumstance of the children of Israel. And then stay longer and deeper on my watch, to see/hear clearly what the Lord is saying concerning this matter.

Did you hear anything as you turned this question over in your spirit? Would you read Jeremiah and be on your watch, to see/hear what the Lord will say to you? Please share with us, by reply email, and we'll send to all on our list. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no Physician there? Why then are the wounds of God's people not healed?

Says the King, to His Kid, today

Tune in next week for part III

And look out for our website: www.kingdomlifeministriesonline.org - it should go live this week, thanks to our dear friend, Tammy, and Bishop Communications!

Prophetic word: This passage is stirring in my spirit: Jeremiah 9:23-25 "23Thus says the Lord: Let not the wise and skillful person glory and boast in his wisdom and skill; let not the mighty and powerful person glory and boast in his strength and power; let not the person who is rich [in physical gratification and earthly wealth] glory and boast in his [temporal satisfactions and earthly] riches; 24But let him who glories glory in this: that he understands and knows Me [personally and practically, directly discerning and recognizing My character], that I am the Lord, Who practices loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight, says the Lord.25Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will punish all who though circumcised [outwardly, in the flesh] are still uncircumcised [in corresponding inward purity]--"....says the Spirit of the Lord
